

NORTON DELIVERS WINS FOR D.C. IN FIRST YEAR OF TRUMP PRESIDENCY

Norton Saves D.C. Laws from Republican Congress and President

Norton hosted a presser with cyclists from Newtown, CT to rally against gun violence

- ✓ Defeated 15 attempts to block or overturn local D.C. laws
- ✓ Stopped 3 attempts to eliminate D.C.'s gun safety laws
- ✓ Blocked bills to gut D.C.'s public school system by making D.C. use local funds for private schools
- ✓ Protected budget autonomy referendum from repeal
- ✓ Saved D.C.'s new medical aid-in-dying law
- ✓ Preserved reproductive health anti-discrimination law

Norton Breaks Records for House Statehood Cosponsors to Keep Momentum Going!

- Norton introduced D.C. statehood bill with a record 116 original cosponsors
- In only the first of two sessions of 115th Congress, climbed to 73% of House Democrats as cosponsors, and counting!
- Residents have engaged in more systematic sharing of #DCStatehood on social media

Norton Maintains Record Funding for DCTAG in First Trump Spending Bill

- Secured $40 million for D.C. Tuition Assistance Grants for second straight year in the fiscal year 2017 D.C. spending bill, signed by Trump
- Fighting for third straight year of $40 million as fiscal year 2018 budget negotiations continue after the New Year
- Nearly 5,000 D.C. students currently attending colleges in 48 states!

Norton Uses Senior Transportation Role to Deliver Big Projects to D.C.

Norton Bills Give D.C. a New Neighborhood on the Southwest Waterfront!

- The Wharf is open for business with new jobs, housing, and amenities for residents
- Norton had to pass 2 bills for D.C. to begin development
- $50 million in tax revenue for D.C. each year

Delivers FULL FUNDING ($226 million) to Rehabilitate Arlington Memorial Bridge

- Vital economic gateway to D.C. tourist economy and to Southeast and Southwest D.C.

Taking on Sexual Harassment in Congress and Across the Nation

- Norton using experience as first woman to chair the EEOC to lead charge in Congress against sexual harassment
- At EEOC, wrote landmark federal guidelines defining sexual harassment as workplace discrimination for first time
- Introduced bill to subject Congress to same across-the-board workplace protections that apply to executive branch and private sector employers

Left: Norton spoke at the New York City Human Rights Commission, which she chaired, at December hearing on sexual harassment

Norton Opposes Republican Corporate Tax Bill, But Gets Benefits for D.C.

Fought unfair Republican tax bill, but negotiated wins for D.C. taxpayers and economy

1. Economic Development Where Most Needed

Got D.C. included in incentives for investment in low-income neighborhoods like some in Wards 5, 7, and 8

2. Affordable Housing to Help Meet Urgent Demand

Preserved Private Activity Bonds to spur development of badly-needed affordable housing units in D.C.

3. D.C. Public Utilities to Save Ratepayer Dollars

Saved tax breaks for D.C. gas and electric utilities, yielding savings for D.C. ratepayers

4. Higher Education Benefits

Eliminated provisions that treated financial assistance as taxable income and that repealed loan interest deductions

How the GOP Gives to the Rich and Makes You Pay For It

In just 3 easy steps!

1. Cut taxes for the rich

"My tax cuts will pay for themselves. It's trickle-down economics!"

2. Explode the deficit

"How could this happen? We've got to cut spending!"

3. Demand big cuts to:

Medicare

Social Security

Education

Norton Bill to Commemorate Bicentennial of Frederick Douglass' Birth Signed Into Law

- Norton gets bipartisan support to create Bicentennial Commission to honor Douglass
- House Democratic Leader Nancy Pelosi appointed Norton to 16-member commission to plan year-long commemoration
- Douglass fought for the vote and full rights for D.C. residents and lived most of his adult life at his historic home in Southeast, Cedar Hill

Right: Norton's bill put Douglass' statue in the Capitol to represent D.C., only non-state with a statue

Norton and congressional leaders visited with patients, parents, and doctors at Children's Hospital in D.C.

Obamacare Lives!

- ✓ Thanks to the Affordable Care Act, more than 96% of D.C. residents have health insurance
- ✓ Major provisions still in place: Protections for pre-existing conditions. Free preventative health services. Adults under 27 can stay on parents' plan. Can't charge more for women
- ✓ Individual mandate repeal to force up rates, but signups for D.C. Health Link surge
- ✓ Norton hosted a town hall with residents, who shared stories on how they benefitted from ACA

Norton's Frequent Community Visits Give Her Vital Feedback on Congress

Nine Senior Legislative Tour Visits

- Visited D.C. seniors where they gather
- Norton fighting expected Republican cuts to Medicare and Social Security to help pay for corporate tax scam bill

Ten "Norton in Your Neighborhoods"

- Visited community and ANC meetings to discuss congressional issues affecting residents

To host a "NIYN," call 202-408-9041, or email Andrew.Alix@mail.house.gov

Norton meets with residents at the Bernice Fonteanu Senior Wellness Center in Ward 1

Norton Fighting for D.C. DREAMers

- Pressing for immediate passage of the DREAM Act to protect D.C.'s 800 DREAMers
- Ending Deferred Action for Child Arrivals (DACA) program would cost D.C. $50 million annually

Left: Norton held her annual Hispanic Heritage Month event at Cardozo High School, featuring D.C. DREAMers, who were brought to the U.S. as children