

Crossing the Bridge Together

A Conversation with Student Civil Rights Activists from Different Civil Rights Eras

Addressing the Unfinished Business of Racial Profiling in America

Welcome - Leighton Watson
Howard University Student Association President

Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Era
Julian Bond & Eleanor Holmes Norton

Howard University Students
Ashley Futrell & Anthony Drivers

Julian Bond was a founder of SNCC, Georgia Legislator, and NAACP Chair and is a visiting Professor, at American University
Eleanor Holmes Norton was a civil rights activist and SNCC worker in Mississippi and currently represents DC in the Congress

Anthony Driver is a senior at Howard and organized racial profiling student body protests. Ashley Futrell is the President of the Howard Law School Student Association and organized discussions on racial profiling and knowing your rights

HOWARD UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AUDITORIUM
2600 6th St NW
Washington, DC 20059

WEDNESDAY,
FEBRUARY 18 , 2015
6PM-8PM